The Challenge of Victorious Life Hymns

If Christian experience were, even for a period of one week, brought to the level of Christian hymns, a great revival would sweep over the world. A Victorious Life Conference has just this purpose ; to make the daily life a daily song on the high levels of Beulah Land. Instead of that, the words we sing in meetings are often shamed into silence by the discord of what we are in actual practise.

It is in our hymns, then, and not in the average Christian experience, that we are to find God's standard for the normal spiritual life. This normal life, the Victorious Life which is every Christian's heritage, is a life of constant joy, of peace that passeth understanding, of complete victory over temptations. It is the ninefold fruit of the Spirit produced all at once in the life of the Christian.

There are always two factors in the making of a true hymn: it is based on Scripture, and it is written out of a Spirit-filled experience. This is God's standard also for daily living,—the high level of the Scriptures and of the clear spiritual vision of Christ.

Oh, while you join in thanksgiving
With voices in tuneful accord,
Remember He watches your living,
And sing with your lives to the Lord.

Hymns have been one of the big factors in the Victorious Life Conferences, and in this volume are gathered together a selection of those that have been most blessed by the Spirit in the summer conferences and in the extension conferences through the year. There have been thousands of available hymns to choose from, representing all ranges of Christian experience and activity, and there are also included some of the choicest of the inspired hymns of the Psalmist.

Theology is sung into the hearts of Christians far more than it is reasoned into their heads, and these hymns represent truly the theology of victory in Christ. Every effort has been made to keep any false notes out of the teaching of the hymns. The starting point is the Cross. We not only start there, but we never get beyond the need of singing

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me . . .

or,

From every stormy wind that blows . . .
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found beneath the mercy seat.

Following directly from a vision of the cross, which brings the conviction of sin, there comes the laying of the life on the altar in complete surrender:

When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride . . .

Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

After the yielding to God there comes the releasing of His power in the fulness of the Spirit, and there may be the greatest boldness in claiming by FAITH the glories of the life of joy and peace and victory and power in Him:

Have thine own way, Lord! Have thine own way!
Hold o'er my being absolute sway.
Fill with Thy Spirit till all shall see
Christ only, always, living in me.

Lord, lift me up and let me stand,
By faith, on heaven's table-land;
Where love, and joy, and light abound.

In every revival prayed down by the Holy Spirit praise has burst forth in great volume, often as the first sign that a break has come. Sometimes there seem hardly words suitable to express the praise and adoration and worship welling up in the hearts of the redeemed, and very often the words of the inspired Psalmist are the only adequate expression:

O my soul, bless thou Jehovah,
All within me bless His Name;
Bless Jehovah, and forget not
All His mercies to proclaim.

Then there are the glad outbursts of "joy bells ringing in your heart," and with them the holy hush of the reverential lines of quiet worship as we sing, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."

In the Victorious Life Conferences a dominant note has been the missionary passion, and some of the greatest of the missionary hymns have helped this spirit:

Christ shall have dominion
Over land and sea;
Earth's remotest regions
Shall His empire be.

Far, far away in heathen darkness dwelling,
Millions of souls for ever may be lost;
Who, who will go, salvation's story telling—
Looking to Jesus, counting not the cost?

And with the missionary hymns goes the challenge to tell the story right where we are:

I love to tell the story,
  It did so much for me!
And that is just the reason
  I tell it now to thee.

Very soon all hymn-books will be in danger of going out of date which do not contain the glad notes of songs to welcome the footsteps of our soon coming Lord. The cry of a torn and bleeding world draws out the cry of our hearts:

O Lord Jesus, how long? how long
Ere we shout the glad song?
Christ returneth! Hallelujah! hallelujah! Amen.
Hallelujah! Amen.

The first of the Victorious Life Conferences was held in 1913, and since that year a conference has been held every summer until 1918, when three summer gatherings were held, in the east, the middle west, and in California. In 1919 a series of extension conferences in different parts of the country was started, beginning with a gathering in Philadelphia in January. A full statement of the message and spirit of the conferences will be found in the volume reporting the addresses of the three conferences of the summer of 1918, entitled "The Victorious Life." [1]

If one word were used to describe the message of this hymn-book it would be the one word that gives the keynote of a Victorious Life Conference. It is not "surrender," though that is a challenging word that Christians meet in these conferences; nor is it "faith," though on our part faith is the victory that overcometh. The key word is "Victory," if we translate that Latin word into "the universal" language. The first mention of the word in the Bible, 1 Samuel 15: 29, gives the translation: "The Victory of Israel will not lie nor repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent." Victory is a Person, the Lord Jesus Himself. The key word for the hymn-book, and for the life of victory, is just Himself. For the Victorious Life is "The LIFE that IS CHRIST."

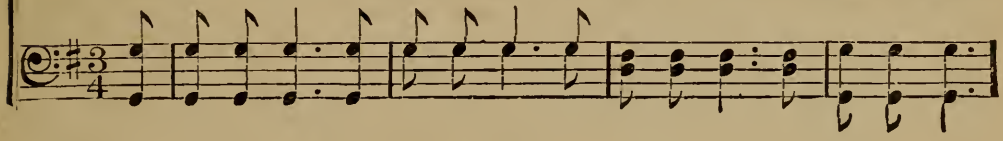
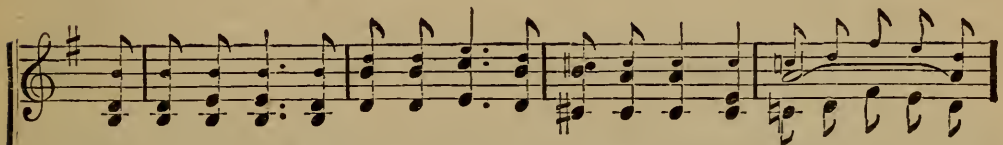
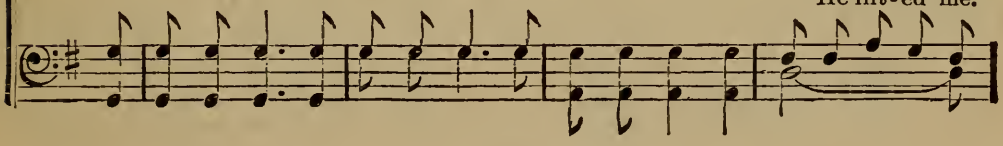
1. In lov-ing kind-ness Je-sus came My soul in mer-cy to re-claim,
2. He called me long be-fore I heard, Be-fore my sin-ful heart was stirred,
3. His brow was pierced with many a thorn, His hands by cru-el nails were torn,
4. Now on a high-er plane I dwell, And with my soul I know 'tis well;

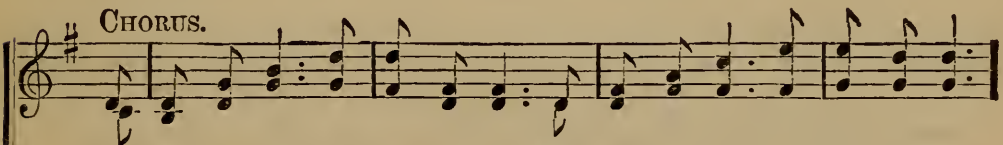




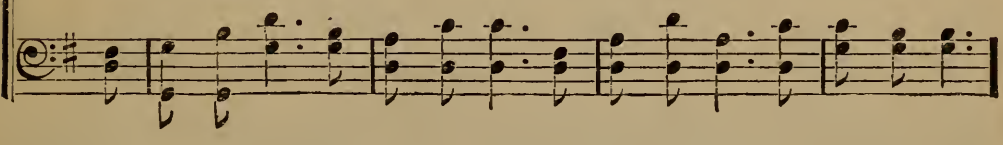
And from the depths of sin and shame Thro' grace He lifted me.....
But when I took Him at His word, For-giv'n He lift-ed me.....
When from my guilt and grief, forlorn, In love He lift-ed me.....
Yet how or why, I can-not tell, He should have lifted me.....
He lift-ed me.

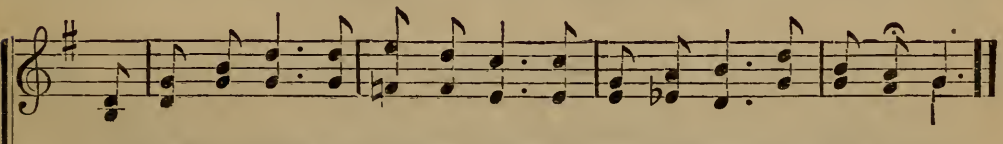


CHORUS.



From sink-ing sand He lift-ed me, With ten-der hand He lift-ed me,





From shades of night to plains of light, O praise His name, He lift-ed me!

Thou Art My Victory.

With thanksgiving for the new life of Victory into which our Lord has recently been leading readers of The Sunday School Times as well as those engaged in the work of that journal, two friends and co-workers on the paper have sought to give expression, in verse and music, to the Victory that Christ offers to all. This hymn was published in a special Music Number of The Sunday School Times of September 25, 1915, and is now reprinted in the hope that it may become an expression of the Victory of many.

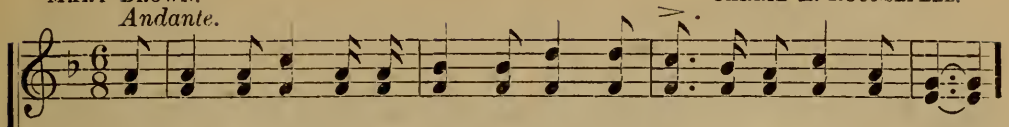
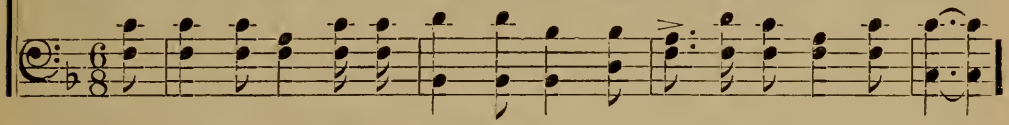
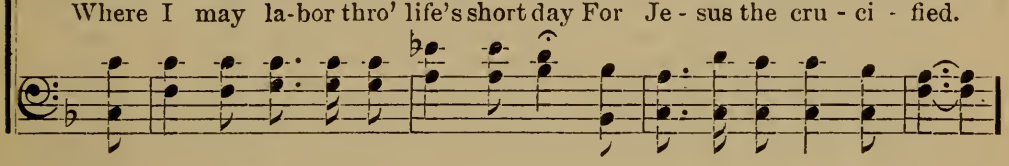
Andante.



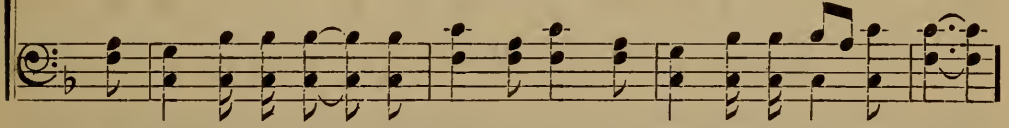
1. It may not be on the mountain's height, Or o - ver the storm-y sea;
2. Per - haps to-day there are lov- ing words Which Jesus would have me speak;
3. There's surely somewhere a low - ly place, In earth's harvest fields so wide.



It may not be at the bat-tle's front My Lord will have need of me;
There may be now in the paths of sin Some wand'rer whom I should seek.
Where I may la-bor thro' life's short day For Je - sus the cru - ci - fied.

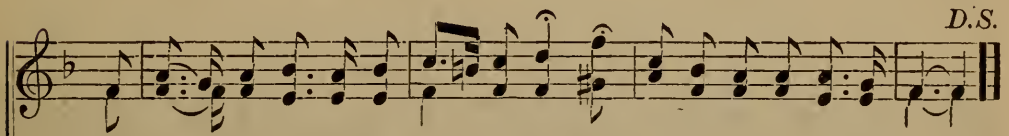


But, if by a still small voice He calls, To paths that I do not know,
O Sav-iour, if Thou wilt be my guide, Tho' dark and rugged the way,
So trust-ing my all to Thy ten-der care, And knowing Thou lovest me,

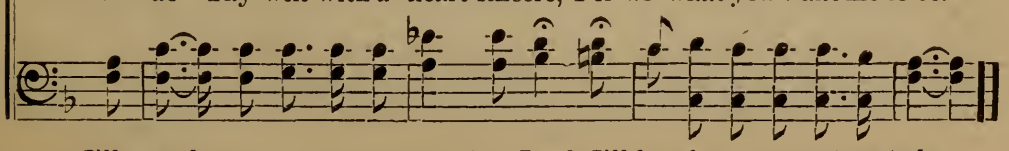


D.S.–I'll go where you want me to go, dear Lord, O'er mountain, or plain, or sea;

D.S.



I'll answer, dear Lord, with my hand in Thine, I'll go where you want me to go.
My voice shall ech - o Thy message sweet, I'll say what you want me to say.
I'll do Thy will with a heart sincere, I'll be what you want me to be.



I'll say what you want me to say, dear Lord, I'll be what you want me to be.

A Personal Testimony.

I was standing at a Bank counter in Liverpool, waiting for a clerk to come; I picked up a pen and began to print on a blotter in large letters, two words, which had gripped me like a vice: "PRAY THROUGH." I kept talking to a friend and printing until I had the big blotter filled from top to bottom with a column. I transacted my business and went away. The next day my friend came to see me, and said he had a striking story to tell me. A business man came into the bank soon after we had gone. He had grown discouraged with business troubles. He started to transact some business with the same clerk over that blotter, when his eye caught the long column of "PRAY THROUGH." He asked who wrote those words, and when he was told exclaimed: "That is the very message I needed. I will pray through. I have tried to worry through in my own strength, and have merely mentioned my troubles to God; now I am going to pray the situation through until I get light."

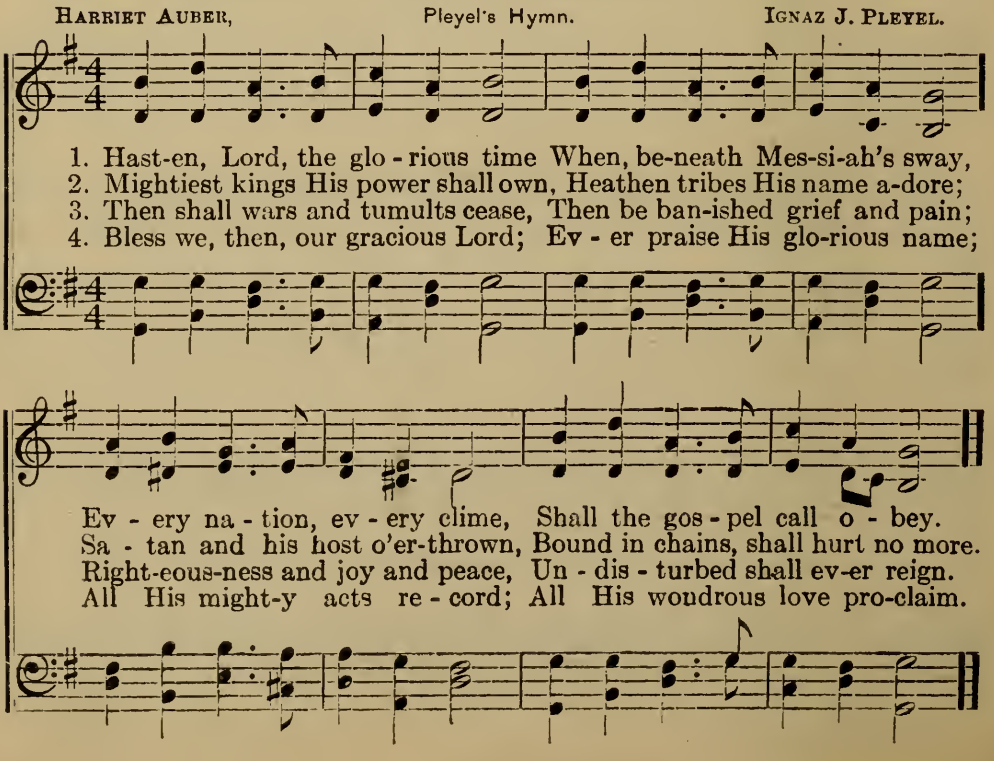
1. Fling out the banner! let it float Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
2. Fling out the banner! an - gels bend In anxious silence o'er the sign,
3. Fling out the banner! heathen lands Shall see from far the glorious sight;
4. Fling out the banner! sin-sick souls, That sink and per-ish in the strife,
5. Fling out the banner! let it float Skyward and seaward, high and wide,

The sun that lights its shin-ing folds, The cross on which the Saviour died·
And vain - ly seek to com-pre-hend The won-der of the love di - vine.
And na-tions, crowd-ing to be born, Bap-tize their spir-its in its light.
Shall touch in faith its ra-diant hem And spring im-mor-tal in-to life.
Our glo - ry, on - ly in the cross; Our on - ly hope, the Cru-ci-fied!

223 Hasten, Lord, the Glorious Time.

HARRIET AUBER, Pleyel's Hymn. IGNAZ J. PLEYEL.



1. Hast-en, Lord, the glo - rious time When, be-neath Mes-si-ah's sway,
2. Mightiest kings His power shall own, Heathen tribes His name a-dore;
3. Then shall wars and tumults cease, Then be ban-ished grief and pain;
4. Bless we, then, our gracious Lord; Ev - er praise His glo-rious name;

Ev - ery na - tion, ev - ery clime, Shall the gos - pel call o - bey.
Sa - tan and his host o'er-thrown, Bound in chains, shall hurt no more.
Right-eous-ness and joy and peace, Un - dis - turbed shall ev-er reign.
All His might-y acts re - cord; All His wondrous love pro-claim.

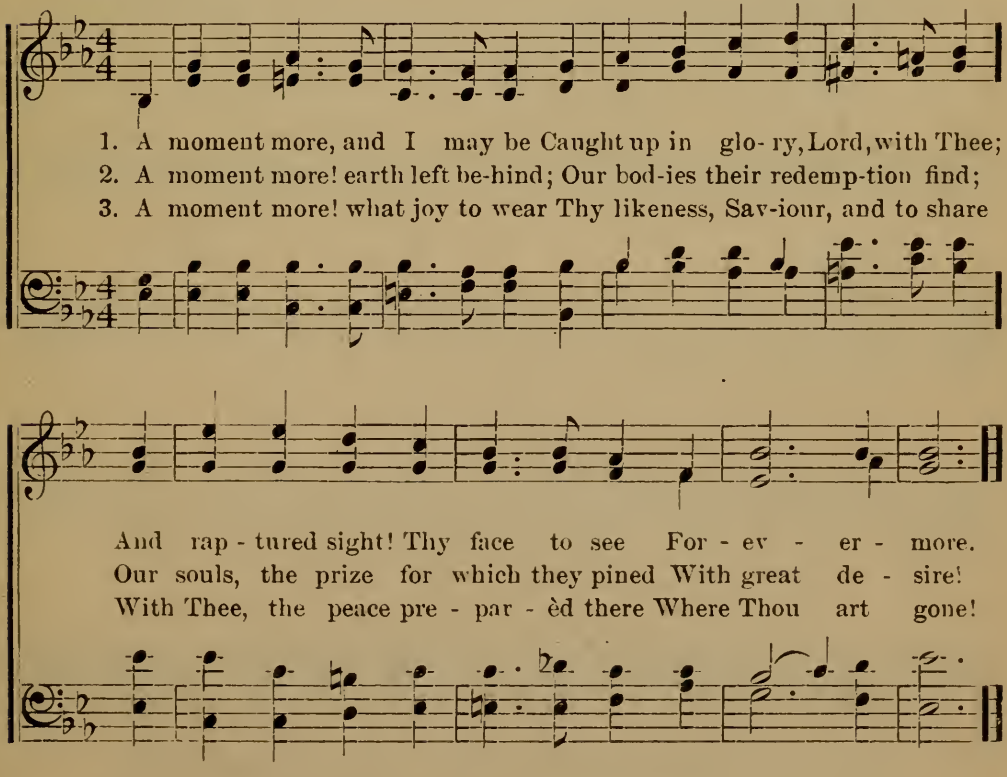
4 When my heart is bowed in sorrow,
Oh, what peace to find it true!
"Casting all your care upon Him,"
Knowing that He cares for you.

5 When life's sun on earth's horizon,
Sinks to rest at eventide,
Then I know His love will hold me,
Bear me to the other side.

268 In a Moment.

From "Our Hope." LEWIS S. CHAFER.



4 A moment more! upon Thy throne;
Thy place by right then made Thine own;
Thou wilt not fill that seat alone,
But with Thy saints.

One moment bring such joy to me?
Yea, joy of joys, yield them to Thee!
Our Saviour Lord!

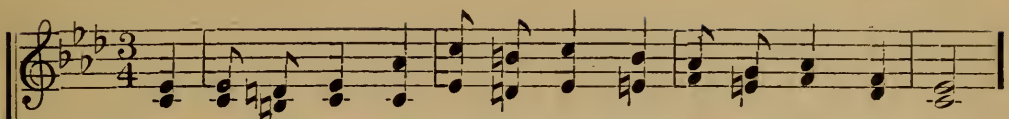
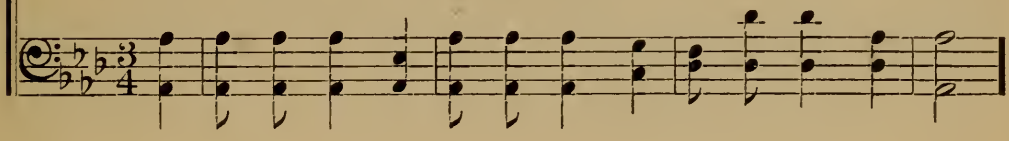
His Will.

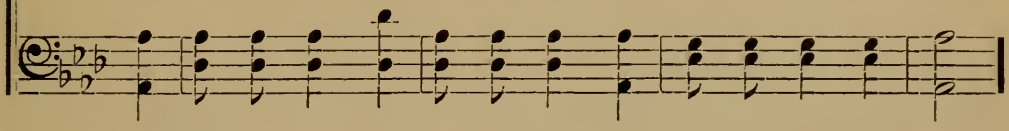
OSWALD J. SMITH. GEO. C. STEBBINS.



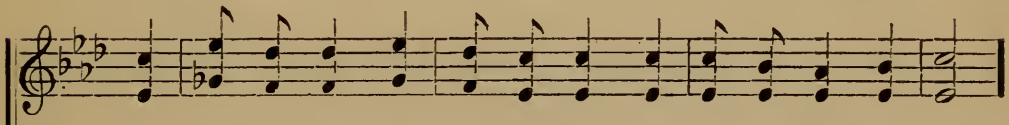
1. The Sav-iour calls thee to His side, To fol-low all the way,
2. He has a plan for ev-'ry life, A path for each to take;
3. He on-ly asks a will-ing heart, Sub-miss-ive to His own,
4. Then lin-ger not be-hind thy Guide, Nor hur-ry on be-fore,



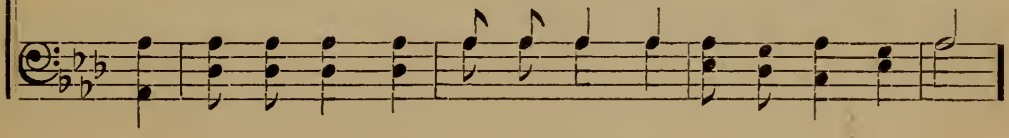
And bids thee what-so-e'er be-tide, His bless-ed will o-bey.
Then let Him lead thro' calm or strife, And thee He'll ne'er for-sake.
Sur-ren-dered whol-ly, not in part, And ruled by Him a-lone.
But step by step, and at His side, Go for-ward ev-er-more.

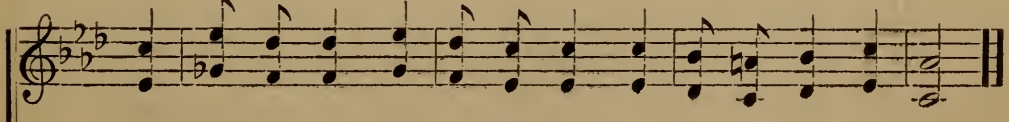


CHORUS.



Oh, wea-ry one, come, hear His voice, For lo! He speaks to thee,





And bids thee make His will thy choice, If thou wouldst happy be.
